12. [] - LLM) Called Hilda Schreiber, OMB, who said that she felt there would be no problem in OMB expediting clearance on an amendment to the CIA Retirement Act conforming to the revision of the cost of living provision for Civil Service by H.R. 3799. She observed that the managerial objectives served by H.R. 3799 did not have equal applicability to the similar CIARDS, but I stressed the equities involved since Agency employees are covered by both Civil Service and the CIA system and she agreed that it would be proper to pursue the matter on that basis.

I told Ms. Schreiber we would send her extra copies of our legislative package that had been requested by her through Jim Oliver, International Affairs Division, OMB.
